FORD PLANTS IN DETROIT RESUME OPERATION

DETROIT, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—A feeling of relief pervaded business as well as labor circles here today as three of the largest industrial plants in the Detroit area—those of the Ford Motor Company, resumed operations after a week of idleness.

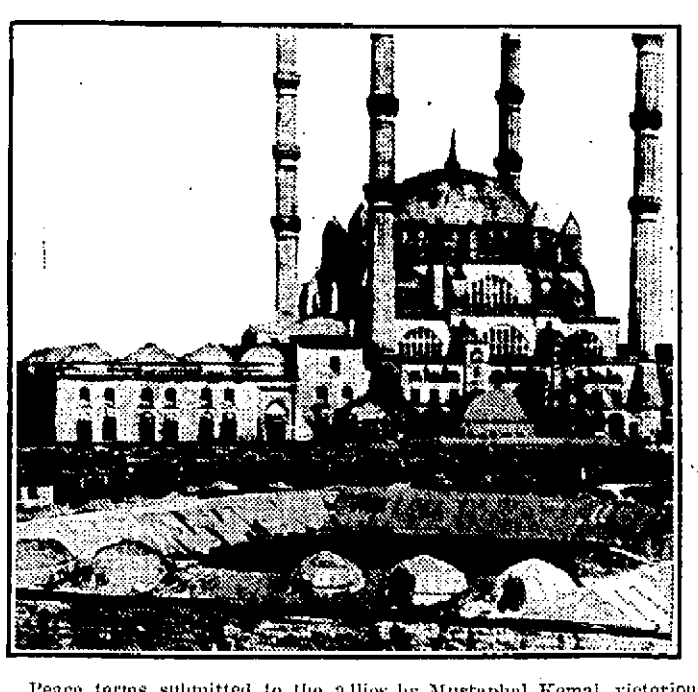

Approximately 70,000 Ford employees were under orders to resume work on their former schedules and between 20,000 and 35,000 workers of other concerns which shut down when the Ford suspension closed up their market, were preparing to re-open. All Ford units, including plants in many other cities of the country, are expected to be running on a normal schedule by Monday.

Other Detroit manufacturers saw in the Ford resumption, assurance that no serious interruption to industry might be expected to result from the coal situation.

The Ford Company requires about 4,000 tons a day and the fact that Edsel H. Ford, president, had commented for that amount, indicated, it was pointed out, that supplies of the paper grades would be ample.

Both Henry Ford and Edsel Ford were out of the city today and details of their final contract which the elder Ford had declared must afford "at an honest price," could not be learned. It was in protest against alleged profiteering, rather than a coal shortage, that led to the closing order a week ago.

Five Near Death From Toadstools

DETROIT, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—A family of five—father, mother and three children, one of the latter a blind boy—was in the municipal hospital today, near death from the effects of eating poisonous fungus, which was served by the mother, police were told, when the supply of food and funds gave out.

A series of misfortunes that began when the father, Albert Moski, brought the family here from Poland six years ago, led up to the near tragedy.

Moski's health failed shortly after his arrival here and his savings were soon exhausted. For the past three years he had been unable to work except at odd jobs and inability to pay his rent led to eviction of the family a few weeks ago.

A payment of $5 had been made for a suburban lot and the family went to this and built a shack which was to be home.

Yesterday the food supply dwindled to a small quantity of bread and a bit of fat and there was no money. The children, however, found toadstools they believed were mushrooms and their mother baked them, believing them edible. Police found the toadstools several hours later.

Hospital attaches said recovery of the boy was doubtful owing to their weakened condition through lack of nourishing food.

Decision On Rail Injunction Tomorrow

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—With the railroad world waiting for the decision, he has promised by 11:00 a. m. tomorrow, Judge James H. Wilkerson, in the preparation of his ruling on the government's strike injunction, was without any suggestions today from Attorney General Daugherty for modification of the restraining order issued September 1.

The only features of the attorney general's bill interpreted as in any way modifying the order now in effect lay in clauses clarifying the phraseology of original passages and in the following provision:

"Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit the use of funds or moneys of any said labor organizations for any lawful purposes and nothing contained in this order shall be construed to prohibit the expression of any opinion or argument not intended to aid or encourage the doing of any of the acts heretofore enjoined or not calculated to maintain or prolong a conspiracy to restrain interstate commerce or the transportation of the mails."

Mr. Daugherty at the close of the hearing, explained the government position.

"This order," he said, "speaks the last word for the government and for society and civilization; for peace and fairness for liberty and protection with firmness and if necessary with force."

Until he makes his ruling, the restraining order issued September 1, and extended for a second ten day period, remains in effect, Judge Wilkerson announced. Meanwhile nineteen railway and three subsidiary companies had made peace with their striking shopmen on the basis of the Baltimore terms, according to an official announcement by John Scott, secretary of the shop crafts organization.

Reads which have declined to settle must shoulder the responsibility of maintaining a lockout, a bulletin issued at strike headquarters asserted.

The return of strikers to the shops of the Southern Railway at Coster, Ky., was marked by the worst outbreak of the strike period, when non-union workmen were driven off after a fight in which 14 men were injured. The Southern was one of the roads which accepted the Baltimore terms.

At St. Louis a bomb demolished a car and stopped a train in the Missouri, Kansas and Texas yards.

FORD PLACES ORDER FOR COAL IN CINCINNATI

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—An order for coal for the Ford Motor Company of Detroit, was signed here today by a representative of the Ford Company, with the American Export and Inland Coal Corporation of this city, it was announced by Ernest F. Heasley, president of the coal corporation. Abner Lunsford, general manager of mines of the Ford Company confirmed the announcement of Heasley, saying that he had signed the order in behalf of the Detroit concern.

Mr. Heasley refused to state the price to be paid for the coal and the amount in tonnage the order called for. He did say, however, that his corporation had the coal and that it would come from mines in Kentucky and West Virginia.

Mr. Lunsford who is acting as purchasing agent, when asked at what price and to what extent he had bought coal for the Ford Company, said:

"You can say that it was at the Hoover fair price and that we now have ordered enough coal to run the plants for thirty days."

"We are buying coal as fast as we can get it at the prices we ask. By the end of thirty days we hope to have enough to run us indefinitely."

"With the removal of interstate commerce commission order number 23, most of our regular shippers who had supplied us with coal before it went into effect have begun shipments again," Mr. Lunsford continued. "In a short time we will have a safe margin of supply."

Probe Murder Of Woman

KANSAS CITY, MO., Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—Police today continued their investigation of the supposed murder of Rosie Serchia, 26, whose half-burned body was found on a brush pile near North Kansas City yesterday. The torso was identified last night by Frank Monteleone, billiard hall proprietor.

That the murder is connected with a series of murders in the Restiva and Campanella families here was one of the theories upon which the police were working. Police said they had been informed that the girl was a member of one of these families, between which a feud has existed several years.

Want Higher Standard Of Teachers

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 22.—(By Associated Press)—Surprisingly low grades made in elementary grade subjects by would-be teachers in Ohio's 56 county normal schools has come to such a point that Director of Education Riegel has called a conference of normal school directors and county school superintendents to meet here today and tomorrow to consider the question.

Director Riegel announced that the conference also was being called to consider the means of raising the quality of the state's public school instructors since there is an over supply of them this year. He said that the shortage of instructors that existed during the war periods has entirely ceased.

Requirements which were lowered during that time are to be raised, he said, and those of the 1,000 normal school students who are not doing satisfactory work and showing little signs of becoming competent instructors are to be told so very frankly, the aim being to make a normal school diploma as far as possible a guarantee to boards of education that results may be expected from teachers possessing them.

Seek Repeal Of Headlight Law

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—Plans to start a fight for the repeal of the Ohio headlight law and to draft an amendment calculated to further strengthen the Atwood Anti-Theft law will be considered at a meeting of the legislative committees of the Ohio State Automobile Association and the national motorists' association at Cleveland today and tomorrow, it was announced here today by Charles C. ## RAILROAD EXECUTIVE NEW FUEL DISTRIBUTOR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—Conrad E. Spens, vice president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Co., today was appointed federal fuel distributor under the new coal distribution and anti-profiteering act.

Selection of the Burlington official for the new post, which carries with it broad authority to devise plans for movement of coal shipments was announced at the White House shortly after President Harding had affixed his signature to the coal distribution and anti-profiteering bill and to the separate emergency measure for a fact-finding coal commission. Mr. Spens is understood to have been recommended by Secretary Hoover, with whom he was associated in the war time food administration.

This statement was issued at the White House.

The president today appointed Mr. Conrad E. Spens, vice president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company to act as federal fuel distributor under the new congressional act.

"Mr. Spens has been given a sixty days' furlough from the Burlington railway to undertake this work. He was chief of the transportation division of the food administration during the war."

"It is felt by the administration that the coal problem is a problem of transportation rather than production and for this reason especially requires transportation experience in its solution."

It was indicated at the White House that the president had not yet made up his mind regarding membership of the fact-finding commission.

Mr. Spens is expected immediately to take charge of coal distribution and to organize a staff of assistants which will include F. R. Wadleigh, of Princeton, N. J., chief of the coal division of the commerce department. The first problem facing the new organization is the question of a transportation plan to effect an adequate distribution of coal before winter.

Coal Miner Draws $291.45 For Two Weeks

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—Mike Raneher was gloating over his pay today. He works in a mine at Rockwood, near here, and drew $291.45 for two weeks' work. He worked only eight hours each day.

Raneher, a coal digger, was "in dick" as his fellow workers termed it. He struck what is known as a "soft spot" in the vein, and during the two weeks he turned out more than 250 tons of coal, with a pick. A soft spot requires little digging, as one stroke of the pick brings down a heavy fall of coal.

Transportation Outlook Declared Ominous

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—Declaring that "the transportation outlook is ominous," the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association today announced the scarcity of cars and slowness of forwarding those which were loaded had cut lumber shipments in the week ending Sept. 10 to "only 82 per cent of the production." Shipments that week were only 17,000,000 feet greater than in the corresponding week of 1921, although production was 73,000,000 feet greater, the statement declared.

GREEKS DETERMINED TO BATTLE TO HOLD POSSESSION OF THRACE

ROME, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—The apostolic delegation at Constantinople telegraphed the Vatican today that the situation there was very grave.

Paris, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—The French cabinet today decided that in view of the refusal of the British to withdraw their forces from Channak on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles, the efforts of the French government should be directed toward preventing war between Turkey and Great Britain. To this end, it was agreed immediately to send Franklin Bouillon to Smyrna.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—Turkish nationalist forces have seized the town of Ezine, on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles and are threatening Kum Kaleh, an important key position on the southern side of the straits. The Kemalists were nowhere opposed.

The nationalist move, in the opinion of the naval experts here, will enable the Turks to prevent free ingress to the Dardanelles to the British-Atlantic fleet units which are on the way from Malta.

The important positions involved were up to today occupied by the French and the Italians and from them the Turkish batteries can command the entrance to the straits.

Ezine, seized by the Turks, is a small town in the valley of Meander river in the Vigha district south of the Dardanelles and is less than 20 miles from Kum Kaleh. The latter town, which the Nationalists are threatening, is on the waterway itself—almost at the entrance to the straits from the Aegean.

Both places are within the zone of neutrality about the straits laid down by the treaty of Sevres. It is uncertain from available data whether Ezine is within the military zone of neutrality, proclaimed in May, 1921. There would appear to be no doubt, however, that Kum Kaleh is within this latter zone, against the invasion of which warning was issued in Constantinople yesterday by the British general, Harrington, commander in chief of the allied forces.

Greece To Retain Thrace

ATHENS, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—Greece will never permit the Turks to invade Thrace, which she considers part of her homeland and retention of which is "an essential preliminary condition to any peace conference." This declaration was made in a statement to the Associated Press by the Greek foreign office today.

"We have lost Asia Minor, but we must keep Thrace," said the statement. "That is an essential preliminary condition to any peace conference. Our army in Asia Minor, which had been fighting for ten years, was absolutely exhausted, but the Greek nation will never permit the Turks to invade Thrace which we consider home territory."

"The Smyrna massacre speaks for itself. Greece is defending Christian civilization."

"Internally Greece is quiet. There is absolutely no danger of a revolution. Foreign reports of trouble are the outgrowth of the insistence of our troops that they be returned to Piraeus instead of being demobilized on the islands. But these warlike men had no revolutionary designs, they only wanted to go home."

"Our king remains because the people demand him and want him."

Trying To Reach Agreement

LONDON, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—Views of the near eastern crisis here oscillate between hope and fear, with a slight tendency in favor of the hopeful side, of the balance. Nothing has happened in the last 24 hours to make the position materially worse, although it continues serious enough.

It is confidently hoped that resumption of the conversations of the allied conference in Paris today will lead to the sending of an invitation to the Ankara government probably tomorrow, to participate in a general conference to settle the Dardanelles question and the Turkish claims.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—The second session of the sixty-seventh congress adjourned today sine die. Legislation passed in the closing minutes of the session was signed at the capitol by President Harding.

Leaders on leaving the capitol generally expressed the belief that President Harding would call congress back in special session about the middle of November to take up the merchant marine bill and add this to the transportation act. The president has not publicly stated whether he has made any decision in the matter.

Today's session in both houses was devoted for the most part to speech-making, in the course of which Republican leaders praised the achievements of the session and Democratic leaders declared it had fallen far short of its expectations.

The house quit work promptly at two o'clock in accordance with the adjournment resolution, but signing by the senate presiding officer of a number of recently passed bills, delayed adjournment of that body until a few minutes later.

President Harding arrived at the capitol a quarter of an hour before the time set for final adjournment, and at his desk in the president's room, began affixing his signature to last minute legislative measures.

"It was an historical dance in many respects and I have often thought about it," Mr. Fulton said today. "Hundreds of couples

Court House

Suit On Notes
Suit to recover the sum of $300 with interest from December 21, 1921, alleged to be due on promissory notes, was brought by Armistead Bros., 1514 Robinson avenue, in common pleas court Friday against Paul and Chloe Higgins, 5345 Gallia avenue, Seabrook. The suit was filed through Attorney T. C. Hearty.

Appeal Filed
Albie Conklin, as executrix of the last will of Joseph Conklin, deceased, filed a petition in common pleas court through Attorneys Ramon and Bannan, appealing from the final action of The Industrial Commission of Ohio, in refusing to allow the claim, only in part, of Joseph Conklin for compensation for injuries he received while employed at the Whitaker-Glossner plant as an engineer, in December, 1919, which, it is claimed, resulted in permanent disability to him up until the date of his death, on August 13, 1922.

The petition says that the commission allowed the claim for compensation for the disability sustained in part, but refused to allow compensation from March 17, 1922, to August 13, 1922, a period over 21 weeks, at $15.00 a week, making a total of $321.42 due, it is claimed.

Schwartz Will Probated

Changes Plea; Sent To Jail
When the case of Edward Chamberlin, indicted for removing a mortgaged auto from the county without the owners' consent, was called for trial in Common Pleas court Friday morning, the accused, through his counsel, Attorney Horace L. Small, changed his plea from not guilty to guilty. In changing the plea Attorney Small called the attention of the court to the fact that the defendant had already served over three months in jail, which is a longer period than the maximum sentence prescribed for the offense and insisted that Chamberlin had been sufficiently punished.

In view of a second indictment pending against Chamberlin charging a similar offense, Judge Thomas fined him $100 and sentenced him to three months in jail and then con-

Enos Mills, Author, Naturalist, Dies

Local friends of Enos Mills, author and naturalist, were shocked to learn of his sudden death which occurred at his home in Long's Peak, Colorado, early yesterday. Mr. Mills delivered an illustrated lecture in Bigelow church about ten years ago and was a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Kline while in the city. Mr. Mills, who was 72 years of age, retired as usual at his home Tuesday night.

He awakened early next morning, called his wife and complained of feeling ill. He died a short time later. Overwork and loss of strength following an accident in a subway car in New York last January are believed to have caused his death.

Mills was familiarly known as "the father of Rock Mountain National Park." In addition to conducting Long's Peak Inn, known all over the country, Mr. Mills wrote extensively for leading magazines and was the author of many books having to do with birds, wild flowers and scenery protection and the development of national parks. He also wrote of animal life. He had climbed Long's Peak, one of the loftiest in the Rockies, more than 300 times.

A man giving the name of J. W. Burton of Portsmouth was fined $6.80 by Mayor William E. Newberry of New Boston. He was found guilty of parking his automobile too close to a water plug. In court Burton said that he knew it was against the law in Portsmouth but did not think it made any difference in New Boston. After being fined he told Mayor Newberry it was an injustice to fine him the first time. After waiting for some time for Burton to dig down into his pocket and pay the fine, Mayor Newberry told an officer to lock the man up. That remark changed Burton's mind rather suddenly for he stuck his hand in his pocket and paid the $6.80 in rapid time.

Stage Scrap; Are Fined

Sparks from a hot iron that dropped from a scaffold above was given as the cause of trouble between men giving the names of Frank Hillerman and Ed Winkle when they appeared before Mayor William Newberry at New Boston this morning. The men were employed in the mechanical department at the steel plant and after their trouble were taken to the Mayor's court by Horace Arthur, police officer, at the steel mill.

At the hearing it developed that Hillerman was working on a scaffold and that Winkle was underneath heating rivets. Sparks dropping from iron being used by Hillerman fell on Winkle and he gave vent to his feelings by calling Hillerman names. Words led to blows when Hillerman invited Winkle to come up on the scaffold and when Winkle left the scaffold he claimed Hillerman hit him on the head with a wrench. Winkle carried a patch on his head which exhibited as evidence against Hillerman.

Both were found guilty of fighting and were released on payment of fines of $10.80 each.

Do You Remember Biggs House Ball?

Following the Biggs House ball of which so much is being said at this time it is recalled that it was here that the annual New Year's eve assembly ball was held. Courtiers had been present from Cincinnati at the new opening in 1872, and the same music was engaged annually thereafter for some years.

As the city grew and large halls were available, the dining room of the Biggs House, large as it seemed to be at that early time, seemed much smaller, and Kendall's hall and other places were selected for the assembly ball which after some years ceased to be held, and are now but a memory. The assembly ball was the fashionable event of the year for years.

A. I. U. TO MEET TONIGHT

President Hartsell Evans, of the local lodge of the American Insurance Union, has called a meeting for 7:30 tonight, and all members are urged to attend.

Scoutmasters' Banquet Will Be Held; Course Of Instruction To Be Offered Boy Leaders

Arrangements are being made by Scout Executive Henderson to hold a Scoutmaster's banquet sometime during the early part of October, for seven or eight weeks. A great many men in Portsmouth interested in scout work will be glad of the opportunity to receive the instruction which will be available in this dress.

At this time an organization of course.

First School Building Known As Wheeler's Academy

The first school building in the city was built in 1818. Later a log was located at Fourth and Market streets and was known as "Wheeler's Academy." It was used for school purposes.

Even in those early days this location was far uptown.

"Wheeler's Academy" became a Methodist church, an organization being established from the few pioneers who had worshipped at the Judge Moore home, and the old stone building still standing at Old Town, beyond Carter Bishop's Ashby, Rev. McKendree and the eccentric Peter Cartwright whose work was largely about Buena Vista and the West Side frequently conducted services at this church prior to 1829, when it was taken over by the colored Methodists who later built a brick church on Fifth street near Court. The white Methodist held services for several years in a building that occupied a site on the east side of Market between Front and Second streets and until the new Bigelow church on Second street was built in 1834, Wm. Tyler, veteran drummer boy in a company that went out from Portsmouth, recalls the church having attended Sunday school there.

Closed Saturday until 5:30 P. M. Corner Book Store.

Scout News

Because of the fact that the old Children's Home building will not be ready for occupancy before January 1, 1923, arrangements have been made to secure the old high school gym for a meeting place for the scouts in the city who have previously been without a place in which to hold their assemblies.

When the Mount Park building is remodeled and renovated, it will be one of the most commodious Scout headquarters in the state for a city the size of Portsmouth.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and all who was so kind to us during the illness and death of our dear wife, mother, daughter and sister, Katie Coburn, Crabtree. All those who sent such beautiful flowers, and also letters, and Mrs. Bridwell, for their words of comfort, and the kind manner in which he conducted the services.

BEGIN HERB TODAY

The reformed crackman, MICHAEL LANYARD, known to the police as the LONE WOLF, is attempting to recover the stolen jewels of EVE DE MONTALAIS, the woman he loves.

Lanyard, who met Eve in southern France, where he rescued her from robbery at the hands of the brutal Parisian Apache.

DUPONT, believes that the jewels were stolen by a motorist party consisting of the American, WHITAKER MONK; his secretary, PHINUIT; the latter's brother, JULES, and the COUNT AND COUNTESS DE LORGNE.

De Lorgne is murdered by Dupont, and later in Paris, Lanyard finds the countess. He learns that her real name is LIANE DELORME and believes she has the jewels.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

LANYARD left Athens at her apartment and immediately followed her directions to the house of Liane.

It stood four-square and massive on a corner between the avenues de Friedland et des Champs-Elysees, a solid stone pile of a town-house in the most modern mode.

Heavy gates of wrought bronze guarded the front doors. The single side or service-door was similarly protected if more simply. And stout grilles of bronze barred every window on the level of the street.

Tomorrow night would be too late. Tonight, if there were any warrant for his suspicions, the jewels of Eve de Montalais lay in the dwelling of Liane Delorme; or if they were not there, the secret of their hiding was.

But tomorrow Liane would be on the wing; or Lanyard had been sorely mistaken in seeing in her as had ever known, when she had learned of the assassination of de Lorgne. He must adventure the consequences.

Poise to leave his shelter with his point of attack selected, he checked and fell back into the shadow. Something was happening in the house across the way.

A man had opened the service-door and paused behind the bronze gate.

Following a little wait, it swung slowly out, perhaps eighteen inches, the man advancing with it and again halting to peer up and down the street. Then, quickly, as if alarmed he withdrew.

Listening intently, Lanyard heard no click of latch, such as should have been audible in that dead hour of hush. Evidently the fellow had neglected to make fast the gate. What was he up to? Why this furtive appearance, why the retreat so abruptly executed?

By way of answer came the soft drone of a high-powered motor. Before the corner house it stopped. A lackey alighted with an umbrella, but Liane Delorme would not wait for him. The car had not stopped when she threw the door open, and the instant when its wheels ceased to turn she jumped down and ran into the house.

Now if only it were true that the man at the service-door had failed to close it securely.

It proved so. The gate gave readily to Lanyard's pull. The knob of the small door turned silently. He stepped across the threshold, and shut himself into an unlighted hall.

To one side a broad flight of stairs ascended; Lanyard went up with the activity of a cat, making no more noise.

The second floor proved to be devoted mainly to a drawing room, a lounge, and a library, all furnished in a world, incoherent sort of magnificence, with money rather than with taste, if one might judge fairly by the fitful and guarded beam of the torch.

Lights were burning on the floor above, and a rumor of faint voices drifted down, interrupted by an occasional shrill rattle of silk; or a brief patter of high-heeled feet; noises which bore out the conjecture that madame's maid was undressing and putting her to bed.

A change in the tenor of the talk between mistress and maid was conveyed by a sudden lift of half an octave in the latter's voice, sounding a sharp note of protest, to be answered by Liane in accent of overbearing anger.

One simply could not rest without knowing what that meant; Lanyard mounted the second flight of stairs as swiftly, surely, and soundlessly as he had the first. Just below a landing he paused, crouching low, his head lifted just enough to permit him to see a section of glowing rose-pink wall—it would be rose-pink!

He could see nothing more; and Liane had already reduced the maid to responses feebly submissive.

"And why should you not go with me to that America if I wish it?" Lanyard heard her say. "It is likely I would leave you behind to spread scandal concerning me with that gabbling tongue in your head?"

"It is well, madame. I say no more. I will go."

"Fetch my jewel-case—the large one."

"Madame takes all her jewels, then?" the maid inquired, moving about the room.

"But naturally, I shall pack them tonight, before I sleep."

"Immiration!"—from Lanyard, beneath his breath. More delay!

"And we leave tomorrow, madame, at what time?"

"It matters not, so we are in Cherbourg by midnight."

The maid came down, carrying an electric candle. Its rays illumined from below one of those tines of crude crudeness. She hesitated, looking up toward the room of her mistress, as if lost in thought.

But some secret thought amused the woman, a shadow deepened in the visible corner of her full-lipped mouth. One fancied something sardonic in that covert smile.

She went on down. Lanyard came out of hiding with a fresh enterprise abroad.

Liane would be at least another half an hour busy with her jewelry, and the thought presented itself that the library, immediately beneath her room, should be worthy an investigation.

The library was furnished with bulky old Italian pieces of carved oak, but suitable enough with one exception, a ponderous buffet, completely out of place in a room of that character.

But—this drew a frowning stare—there was a key in the lock of the middle door.

"There's such a thing as too much luck," Lanyard commended. "First the service gate and door, and now this, ready to my hand!"

He swung sharply round and searched every shadow in the room with the glare of the portable lamp.

Flushing the lamp on the floor and adjusting its hood so that it focused squarely upon the middle section of the buffet, he turned the key and discovered, behind the door, a small safe.

HER EYES BULGING FROM THEIR SOCKETS.

The combination dial was smug with ill-grounded confidence in its own inviolate integrity. Still (Lanyard told it) it could hardly be expected to know, it had yet to be dealt with by the shade of the Lone Wolf.

Amused by the conceit, Lanyard laid hold of the knob with steady delicate fingertips that had not yet, in spite of years of honorable fitness, forgotten their cunning.

The dial whirled, paused, reversed, turned all but imperceptibly. In three minutes he sat back on his heels, grasped the T-handle, turned it, had the satisfaction of hearing the bolts slide back into their sockets, and opened the door wide.

But the racked pigeonholes held nothing to interest him whose one aim was the recovery of the Montalais jewels. The safe was, in fact, dedicated simply to the storage of documents.

"Love letters!" Lanyard mused with a grimace of weariness. "And each believed, no doubt, she cared too much to compromise him. 'Good Lord! what vanity is man's!'"

He selected a pigeonhole at hazard and emptied it of several bundles of letters, all neatly bound with tape or faded ribbon and clearly docketed.

His eye was caught by a great name endorsed on the face of one of the packages and reading what else was written there his brows rose, high white his lips showed a soundless whistle. Liane had kept such documents as gave her power over others. Lanyard wondered if it were possible he held in his hand an instrument to bend the woman to his will.

Suddenly he put out a hand and switched off the light, a gesture quite involuntary, simple reaction to the muffled thump of a chair overturned on the floor above.

Sounds of scuffling followed, as if Liane were dancing to no music with a heavy-footed partner. Then a great

His hand moved so rapidly and deftly that, although he seemed to rise without a second's delay, the safe was closed and the combination locked when he did so, the buffet door was shut and his key in his pocket.

This time Lanyard ascended the stairs without heeding what noise he made. Nevertheless his actions were never awkward or ill-thought; his approach was not heard, his arrival on the upper landing was unnoticed.

In an instantaneous pause he looked into the rose-pink room and saw Liane Delorme in a negligee like a dove, kneeling and clapping at her throat, muttering with a heavy silk handkerchief was slowly tightening; her face already purple with strangulation, her eyes bulging from their sockets, her tongue protruding between swollen lips.

A thick knee was planted between her shoulder-blades. The ends of the handkerchief were in the snowy hands of Albert Dupont.

FELT SO TIRED ALL THE TIME

Indiana Lady Says She Was Run Down, Suffered With Her Back, Took Cardui, and Got Well.

Richmond, Ind.—"I thought I would write a line or so, to say that I owe my good health and strength to Cardui," says a letter from Mrs. Cora Courtney of 705 North Seventeenth street, this city.

"I was all run-down until my family thought they would lose me," writes Mrs. Courtney. "My husband coaxed me to take Cardui, as I please him, I did, and I will say I do not regret it, for I am able to do all my work and do my shopping."

"I have five children, four in school, my husband and a boarder to do for, and I do all my own work for all of us, and find time to play. We all praise Cardui. Every sick and run-down woman should take this wonderful medicine."

"I suffered with my back; a very weak feeling in my limbs. I felt hardly able to drag; just tired—so tired all the time."

"It was an effort for me to do anything, but Cardui helped me so I felt like a different woman."

If you are in a run-down physical condition, suffering as this Indiana lady says she did, give Cardui a fair trial. It should help you.

Cardui is a purely vegetable tonic medicine for women's ailments, found valuable in thousands of such cases as described above.

Take Cardui. Your druggist sells it.—Advertisement.

Twenty-four Years Ago

Marshall Ashley was granted a license to wed Nellie Artist.

Mrs. Amanda Pursell, who died at her home in Portsmouth in 1898, was reputed to have been the only woman who ever lived a substitute and sent him to war when there was no claim upon her to do so, according to the Cincinnati Enquirer. Mrs. Pursell died at the age of 73 years.

Alex M. Glockner, Dolph Hurth, Gus Gengoullacher and Lou Hurth composed a party that invaded the Powder Mills Locks on a fishing expedition.

Grover Hughes, shot accidentally at his home near Wakefield, succumbed to his wound.

Licenses to wed were issued to Carl L. Talange, of Chesterfield, Ohio, and Clara Corly, Franklin Farmer, and Alexander Boyer and Willie Toland, both of American.

A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Eckhart, of Lanes street.

W. F. Albright, the printer, wandered over from his South Portsmouth home looking very much if he had encountered the Spanish guerrillas. He had been suffering from rheumatism and had one arm in a sling and walked on crutches.

Friends of Miss Mary Volmer, of West Fifth street, were surprised to learn of her marriage to Frank Kirsch in Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pike and little child were in the city from their home in Harrisville, New Hampshire. Mr. Pike was a former resident of Portsmouth and years before he was a policeman, having the Fifth ward for his beat. Ewing Davis was also on the force then.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—I am coming to you for advice. I am in love with a pretty little girl, but her parents are against me keeping company with her. What do you think would be proper for me to do? The girl is 21 years of age and she says she loves me and I really think she does. I know I love her. Is there any way to gain the favor of her parents? Please advise me what to do as I do not want to give the girl up.

WORRIED BOY
I can't tell you how to gain their favor, without knowing why they object to you. Is it because you are not good enough for their daughter, or because you don't make enough to support her? However, I should think it would be up to your sweet heart to fix things up for you. If she can't win them over to your side, there is no use for me to try. She is old enough to marry without winning their consent if she wants you, so maybe she is just using them as an excuse to get rid of you.

Dear Dolly—I am very lonely as I am so far away from my home folks, and only a small family—myself, my husband and three children. My husband and I get along very well except that he is so dull, and does not talk very much. I am good and kind enough to him and he should try to please me once in awhile. I would like for him to be loving always. Do you think he will ever get rid of his distant turn. We never quarrel, but I just don't like him.

A TRUE WIFE
Maybe he is not the affectionate kind, or maybe he has gotten past that stage, ere this. Some men quit making love to their wives after the honeymoon is over. They think if they provide a home for her their duty ends there. It never enters their minds that their wives are pining away for a little attention. Then, too, maybe your husband is too tired to read or talk, and you will just have to try and get along the best way you can with him. Again he may have the same opinion of you as you have of him. Maybe he thinks you are cold and indifferent towards him. I think your trouble is a misunderstanding that can be straightened out in a jiffy if you begin to do the talking and loving.

Dear Dolly—Will you please print the amount of rainfall in Portsmouth during 1921?

A READER.
I have no way of keeping tabs on the rainfall. You might get this information from Dr. Harry A. Schirman if you must have it, but if you just want to know for curiosity, don't ask him to waste his perfectly good time averaging it up for you.

Dear Dolly—What is the altitude of the mountains that one is obliged to cross to enter Denver? Is the pressure of the atmosphere at the highest point where they cross violent enough to be of danger to one's life who is in a feeble physical condition and who experiences difficulty in breathing at various intervals? Has Denver a Chamber of Commerce? Would it be of any assistance to one who is contemplating locating there?

J. R. F.
I would not attempt to say what effect the high altitude would have on your physical condition. I think you should consult your family physician or some other physician about that. If you are not physically fit to make the trip, why leave home? Unless you are quite positive that the change will be for the better, I think you are making a foolish and expensive move. Don't go because some friend or neighbor advised you to, or because you knew of someone who was benefited by going out there. Your case may be entirely different from theirs, and the climate in Denver may do you more harm than good. There is a Chamber of Commerce there and I am sure they will be glad to give you any information you want on the city, state and surrounding states.

Dear Dolly—Would you kindly tell me where I can purchase one of those large square sailor ties that the sailor boys use on their suits? I have one that a sailor gave me some time ago, but it is nearly worn out.

SEAFORM CANDY—One and one-half cups of light brown sugar, 1-2 cup of cold water, 1 teaspoonful of vinegar, the white of 1 egg, 1-2 cup of chopped nut meats. Boil the sugar, water and vinegar until it will form a ball when dropped in cold water. Have the white of the egg beaten to a stiff froth. Pour the syrup into it very slowly, beating constantly. When it begins to cream, add the nuts and a drop or two of vanilla. When creamed, drop on buttered tin or paraffin paper, or pour into buttered tins and cut in squares. It is stiff but will not cream, put it into a double boiler and beat constantly. Let the sea-foam candy stay on the fire until the parts sticking to the edge of the pan begin to look creamy.

I have the name and address of a family living 14 miles out in the country who would like to have a middle-aged woman to make their home with them, and help with the housework.

WHEN JACK GOT BACK TO THE GRAIN STORE, HE FOUND HIS TWO PETS HAD BEEN TAKEN CARE OF. HE THEN SAT DOWN ON THE CURB-STONE AND STUDIED HIS MAP.

ABOVE IS A REPRODUCTION OF JACK'S MAP. HE DID NOT KNOW WHERE HE WAS, BUT SUPPOSED THE TOWN OF RIVEREND WAS BETWEEN THE HERMIT CAVE AND THE OLD MILL.

JACK THEN ASKED A STRANGER WHERE THE TOWN OF RIVEREND WAS SITUATED. THE MAN REPLIED THAT IT WAS ONLY A FEW MILES FROM THE OLD MILL, AND ADVISED JACK NOT TO GO THERE.

THE LITTLE ADVENTURER STARTED OFF IN THE DIRECTION OF THE OLD MILL. HE WONDERED WHY THE OLD MAN TOLD HIM TO KEEP AWAY FROM THERE. CONTINUED IN NEXT CHAPTER.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS DARTON

LIGHT FINGERS was the tricky little fairy who had stolen the Fairy Queen's automobile. While rolling along the Milky Way, he fell out of the machine and rolled off down to the earth.

He got up and rubbed his head and tried to think what had happened.

"Oh, I know now!" he cried. "It's the Twins! The last thing I saw before I fell out of the sky was the Twins hopping into the automobile and driving off."

"First thing you know they'll be back at the Fairy Queen's Palace in Fairyland and then won't I catch it, though!"

"I stole the automobile for Twelve Toes, the Sorcerer, who wanted it dreadfully, and now I've got to go and tell him that I lost it. Oh me, oh my! I bet he'll turn me into a worm or something, he'll be so mad."

Light Fingers went slowly, ever so slowly, to the cave where Twelve Toes lived, his head down and his finger in his mouth.

"Now, what've you been doing?" demanded Twelve Toes, striding out of his cave and looking as cross as a hungry bear. "Where's that magic automobile I sent you after?"

Then Light Fingers had to tell him

- 1 small onion
- 2 tablespoons butter or oil
- Salt, pepper.
- 1 cup bread crumbs or
- 1/2 cup grated cheese

WASH, wipe and cut the peppers in halve lengthwise. Remove seeds and inside pulp and sprinkle with salt.

Boil macaroni in small pieces and cook until soft in boiling salted water. Drain, season well with salt and pepper.

Stuff peppers with macaroni. Cover each pepper with bread crumbs mixed with a little melted butter, or with the cheese.

Place in a pan, adding just enough water to prevent burning, and bake until peppers are soft. Serve with fresh tomato sauce.

If one does not wish to serve a sauce with the peppers, mix the macaroni with enough cooked tomato to moisten.

Cooked rice may be used instead of the macaroni.

the whole thing, how he'd fallen out of the automobile and how Nancy and Nick had jumped in and turned the little knob on the whirling between the jiggamag and the thingamag and driven away.

"Oh, goodness!" stormed Twelve Toes. "That's awful! You're a clumsy fellow! But it's not too late to get it back. Here's a magic bean like the one Jack the Giant Killer planted."

"See, now I'll plant it! There, it's growing already. Soon it will reach the sky. Now you climb up and chase those Twins as fast as you can."

Among Saturday's Offerings We Feature A Sale Of Dresses At $24.50

With drastic style changes in dresses it certainly is going to behoove every woman who cares a penny about obliterating last season's appearance to hustle into frocks that are characteristic of the current season. Styles are changing so that last season's dress will be labeled the minute it steps out upon the street. Since this is a season of great changes and there is such a demand for the new model dresses, we are as usual, right in front with special inducements in the way of an unusual assortment at a special price. This is perhaps as you might expect, knowing the past performances of Andersons' Store.

An Unusual Assortment At $24.50. Saturday Only.

The special sale which is for one day, Saturday, only consists of an unusual assortment of the season's most approved styles in silk and cloth dresses, in women's and misses' sizes. Of course they have all the style changes and car-marks of Dame Fashion's latest edicts.

Exclusive Values At $24.50

Hey Skin-nay! I Got My Suit At Andersons'—It's A Peach

If a suit can stand the test, it is just what sonny and mother are looking for. Here are some.

Two pairs of knickers, of course, in all-wool fabrics that look like a boy, rough and ready for anything in the way of sports. These suits are specially reinforced at points of greatest wear and you will recognize the measure of value in them, priced at $10, $12.50 and $15.00.

Boys' Wash Togs--Cracker Jacks

We know that the typical young American lad has never been particular, especially about his clothes. If there is a nail in the cellar door when he slides down--well, he just had to slide. That's no reason though why you should not get the most serviceable duds you can find. We nominate Kay-nee togs for this honor.

Kay-nee wash suits Middy and Oliver Twist styles, well made, fast colors and the cutest you've seen at $2.50 to $5.00.

Kay-nee blouses in plain, stripes and checks, in madras, percale, and pongee at $1.00 to $2.00.

Kay-nee shirts that wear well and will tub often without hurting them, at $1.25 to $2.50.

Here's One Place Where Baby Rules

Of course we know the baby is usually the boss and there is no exception from this rule in our cozy and secluded baby shop where we do everything to please the "boss." To show that baby is boss here we cater to the slightest whim and there isn't a thing that the wee little bits of humanity could want for we do not supply. So efficient is this department and so expert the girls in charge, that mothers and expectant mothers have come to look upon this dear little shop as the solution of many baby problems. Here are a few items we are featuring now.

Vanta Garments, Do You Know Them?

It seems to us that every mother would be glad to get rid of buttons and pins on baby's garments. Do you know that the "Vanta" shirts and hands are made with them?

If your baby wears Vanta garments, when he cries you know there isn't a pin sticking him or a button hurting his soft, pink skin.

Vanta shirts come in half-wool, three quarter wool all-wool and silk and wool.

A Night At Home With A Good Book

With the evenings getting longer and cooler it is a delight to return to the old arm chair, deserted throughout the summer, and to become lost in a good book of fiction. Numbers of new titles by best authors have but recently arrived and you have an unlimited choice of several hundred copies at 69c.

Children's Vanity Boxes At 50c

We don't know how many of these we have sold but we do know that every little girl that comes past the table exclaims, "Oh, mamma, I'd like to have one of those." They are regular little vanity or canteen boxes, leather-covered and have a nice mirror, small purse, and little fixin's inside, and priced 50c.

Women's Sport Hose at 75 Cents

They are going like hot-cakes, this number in black, cordovan, grey and camel. They are made with the popular whale rib and we are selling them at 75 cents.

Sale Of Women's Hose At 35 Cents

Just to clean up the remains of several discontinued lines in women's hosiery we have bunched them and are offering choice of the lot at 35 cents, or 3 pairs for $1.00. It is needless to say that these hose are worth very much more than this. Black, white and brown in the lot.

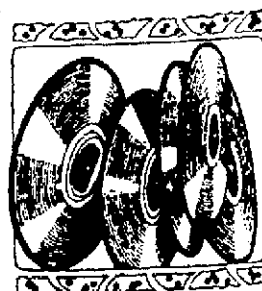

Children's school hose in white, black, and brown may be found here in a special sale at 15 cents. Some of these are worth double this price.

Mothers looking for children's socks with which to finish the season will find them here considerably underpriced.

Special! Umbrellas Re-Covered

We have about three dozen umbrella covers which we are going to close out at the mighty low price of $1 each. These coverings are all for men's umbrellas, regular size, containing 7 ribs. No coverings for women's umbrellas are in this lot. While these range in value up to $2, we are, while they last, putting them on at the special price of $1. Leave umbrellas tomorrow, get them next week.

New Records Galore--And Only 49 Cents

It beats all how folks do buy these 49c records. Another big express shipment came in yesterday and we can supply you with "Angel Child," "Stumbling," and the host of other big selections for 49c, tomorrow. Why pay 75c when you can get just as much value for 49c?

Good selections of standard, popular, and sacred numbers.

—And it's time to buy bedding too.

Field, Cincinnati, September 30. There are four regulars in the Pitt lineup that weigh over 200 pounds, while on the other hand there is no man in the Bearcat squad that weighs over 100 pounds. Most notable of the Panthers that are extremely heavy is Hippo Hewitt, full-back, who weighs 212, and Tiny Miller, center, who weighs 230. Coach Warner of the Pittsburgh team picked these two men from the Pitt student body although they seemed to be much too fat for football. Miller weighed 275 pounds when he first attracted Warner's attention. By hard work the past year and this summer he has cut his weight down to 230. Hewitt was almost entirely responsible for the Panthers' 21-14 victory over the Bearcats last fall.

DANCING ON THE RIVER FRONT

For the first time since the early part of the eighteenth century, there will be dancing again on the river front.

The late Squire Hall who was a native son, and who lived here more than 80 years, oftentimes told of how in the early days, the young people of the then small town, and who lived on what was known as Water street then, gathered on the river grade at the foot of Court street in pleasant evenings, and amused and enjoyed themselves dancing.

Fess Is Speaker
CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 22.—Differences of character, race, religion or language between France and England will not cause a rivalry or jealousy or concern, but an economic difference, is not so easily adjusted. Congressman S. D. Fess, Yellow Springs, declared here last night in an address before the Unitarian Laymen's League of Cleveland.

"Britain's interest, economically considered, is the rejuvenation of the productive power of Germany," he continued. "France's interest is in rebuilding her broken fortunes, due to her great loss on hand in the war. All parties agree that this loss to France must be made up to the extent of Germany's ability to do it."

The greatest service the United States can render European countries, the speaker said, is to stand back until their international affairs are settled and then assist them.

Mrs. Poulin On Stand

SOUTH BEND, IND., Sept. 22.—(By The Associated Press)—Mrs. Mae Poulin, wife of Harry Poulin, who is charged by Mrs. Augusta Tierman, with the paternity of her ten month old child, is expected to resume the stand, when hearings in the case are taken up here today.

Taking the stand immediately after the state closed its case, Mrs. Poulin disputed practically in its entirety, previous testimony given by Mrs. Tierman regarding the alleged relations between the latter and Mr. Poulin. The witness testified that on all of the occasions with the exception of one, which Mrs. Tierman claimed the defendant was in her company, Mr. Poulin had accompanied her (Mrs. Poulin) to church. On that occasion, the witness said, Mr. Poulin was ill and had remained at home.

Yesterday's session, like those preceding it, was marked by many heated verbal clashes among the contending counsel and witnesses. Mrs. Tierman was put back on the stand yesterday for a brief cross-examination and the testimony of two doctors also was taken. One of the doctors

The Woman Who Dared

CONSTANTLY suffering, nervous, lacking energy and vitality to throw off the bonds of worry and despair; this little woman dared defy the shackles of poor health—dared to defy the skeptics—dared to take that step which she believed would bring her health and happiness.

She began taking TANLAC—and now, she calls herself the happiest woman in the entire city.

Her miserable troubles soon disappeared and she found herself eating better, sleeping better, feeling better and there swept through her veins that buoyant strength and energy which enabled her to be a true helpmate to her husband and a real joy and inspiration to her family.

There is a flood of gratitude in her heart now, as she looks back to that day when she determined to have good health, and backed up that determination by taking her first bottle of TANLAC.

There is not a woman reading this little story but wants to help her husband in his struggles for success—to be strong, attractive and free from the ills that keep her dragging around without energy or ambition to attain her dreams of happiness.

But what are you doing about it—just wishing? Or, will you do as thousands of courageous, sensible women have done and find health, happiness and the joys of living by taking that splendid tonic medicine and system builder—TANLAC?

You can obtain this wonderful, up-building, energizing medicine, at all good druggists. Take

FINGER PRINTS SOLVE

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 22.—Finger prints on file in a government bureau at Fort Leavenworth led to the identification today of a young man drowned in the Maumee river here three weeks ago. He is Harold Kenneth Taggart, also known as John Allen Fox, formerly of Columbus, Wark, and who also had been committed to the state hospital in Lima. An overseas button on the man's coat prompted police to take finger print impressions that resulted in the identification. A search is being made for the former soldier's relatives.

Protestant Episcopal Church On Record In Recognition Of Ministry Of Healing

PORTLAND, ORE., Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States has been formally placed on record in recognition of the ministry of healing. The recognition was accorded last night by a vote of the house of deputies at the general convention here. The bishops' action authorizes clergy and lay members who believe they possess powers of healing, to prepare themselves "by care and prayer and theological and medical study for their proper and safe exercise."

Provision is made that wherever this ministry is specialized, those who exercise it shall do so only with the written approval "after due consideration of their bishop and in sympathetic conference with qualified Christian physicians. A commission to consider the matter of healing further was named.

The session of the deputies last night was enlivened by an attack by Roswell Page, of Beaver Dam, Virginia, upon a proposed new prayer in the communion service. "You have introduced into this, the most sacred of all our services," he said, "new prayers and new ceremonials, distasteful to many of us. You pray to the Blessed Virgin Mary. I don't care what the people of Boston or New York or Milwaukee think. I represent the people of Old Virginia, and know what they think. I protest, sir, against this prayer."

The protest was unavailing. The whole service as revised was adopted. A change was made in a prayer which read:

"Have mercy on all Jews, Turks, Infidels and Heretics."

The new words are:

"Have mercy on all who know Thee not."

Putting into effect the machinery for the operation of the concordat, an arrangement between the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and the Congregational church whereby bishops of the former church may ordain such ministers of the latter as may ask ordination was before the deputies today. The bishops have adopted the necessary canon amendments.

New Tariff Rates Effective

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—The new rates of the tariff act of 1922 were effective today at American ports. The law, marking a new phase in the history of American tariff making, its delegation to the president of broad powers under the elastic rate provisions went into effect at midnight with all collectors of customs previously instructed as to its provisions which became operative at once.

With the going into effect of the law, the tariff commission as the agency through which the president will exercise his new authority to increase or decrease rates and to change from foreign to American valuation as the basis for assessing ad valorem duties, assumes a greatly enlarged function. In addition to extensive investigations into cost of production at home and abroad as a basis for recommendation for rate or

LOCAL SCOUT TROOP ASPIRES TO BE 100 PER CENT FIRST CLASS

Paul Williams, who recently returned to this city from an extensive tour of the west, met his Boy Scout troop (the Nature Troop) at his home Wednesday evening.

A full attendance of the troop is expected.

Next Wednesday the first regular business meeting will be held and every week thereafter on Friday.

The troop is composed almost entirely of First Class Scouts, and it is the Scoutmaster's ambition to have every member of this standing in the near future.

When this is accomplished, the troop will be among the very few of this rating in the U. S.

Kiwanians "Play Golf"

"Fore! Hey, you, 'fore' means heads up, and get out of the way."

The above is an extract from several conversations heard at the Golf Club yesterday when the Kiwanis Club held their weekly session there.

The secret of the statement as explained to an uninformed lady, is this: Part of the Kiwanians play golf. Others do not. Yesterday afternoon some of the initiated undertook to show the uneducated how the ancient Scotch amusement is played.

Now it comes to pass that "Fore" is what an old time golfer shouts when he gets ready to swing a wicked club and wants a clear field. It means, in plain United States, "Look out; I don't know where I'm going, but I'm on my way."

The Kiwanians enjoyed the afternoon thoroughly, and in addition to golf, some snappy tennis matches and some good horseshoe games were on the program.

At the business session the suggestion was made that the band concert Sunday afternoon be held in York Park, in order that the Pageant seats might be utilized. This matter was turned over to the Pageant Association Executive Committee, and they are to act upon it at their next meeting.

Henry Bannan, M. A. Coe, Roger Selby, Charles Bierley and others will attend the district Kiwanis Club convention in Cincinnati next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Flowers and a message of condolence were sent to Ed Leach, whose sister, Miss Bessie Leach, passed away Wednesday in a Pittsburgh hospital.

Rotarians Consider Home For Aged Men

Plans for the establishment of a Home For Aged Men were discussed at the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club, which was held at Taylorson Woods Thursday evening.

The movement is looked upon favorably by the Rotarians after the committee, which had been appointed to investigate the project, made its report.

The Peck property, Second and Washington streets, is being considered and the owners have given the Rotary Club what is considered to be a very satisfactory price. The matter was passed for further discussion but it was stated after the meeting that there was a strong probability that in the near future Portsmouth would have a suitable and well kept home for aged men, who no longer had anyone to look after them. The committee that is looking thoroughly into this project is composed of Simon Laibold and Dr. H. A. Schirman.

Yesteryear's outing was the last one of the season for the Rotarians.

It seldom falls to the lot of human beings to celebrate a Golden Wedding Anniversary, but as the cycle of time rolls by, there comes this privilege to a favored few, who have withstood the Tempest of Life, the Winds of Adversity and the Waves of Affliction and have been permitted to draw out the span of years to three score and ten, or perhaps more than the allotted days of Man. Whenever such an unusual occasion comes around, kind friends and neighbors, relatives and acquaintances vie with each other for the first opportunity in congratulating the ones whom time has so favored. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shela, two of the most prominent and highly respected of the older residents of the city, are happily celebrating their fifty-second wedding anniversary today at their home, 1044 Eleventh street. Mr. and Mrs. Shela celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary two years ago today, and this evening they will receive their children and grandchildren who are living here and at Wheelersburg, and a few of their friends and neighbors. They have not issued any invitations, but will be glad to receive any of their friends who wish to call and extend their congratulations and best wishes on this unusual and happy occasion. Their children who will be present this evening include Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Shela and daughter, Elva Ruth, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shela and son Charles, Jr., and Miss Barbara Shela of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Shela and daughter Geneva, Mr. and Mrs. John Messer and sons Edward and Clarence of Wheelersburg.

For the pleasure of Miss Mae Kahl, who will become the bride of J. I. Marsh, early in October, Mrs. Anna Kahl, Mrs. Leslie Jacobs and Miss Amanda Marsh entertained with a miscellaneous shower at the Marsh home, 1526 Fifth street, last night.

A profusion of goldenrod and dahlias was used in adorning the rooms, and music, games and various amusements formed the diversions of the evening. Miss Kahl was the recipient of many handsome and useful gifts for her future home.

At a late hour, a delicious two course lunch was served to about sixty guests, who enjoyed the hospitality of the Marsh home during the evening.

Mrs. John Vetter entertained with an informal card party yesterday afternoon at her home, 918 Third street, for the pleasure of Mrs. J. J. Vetter of Brooklyn, N. Y., who with her husband is visiting among their relatives and friends in this city. The afternoon was spent in playing Five Hundred and at the close of the games prizes were awarded to Mrs. S. P. Balmert and Mrs. W. J. Burke. Later a delicious two course lunch was served at the small tables by Mrs. Vetter and her sister, Miss Rose Glockner and Miss Margaret Vetter.

Those present included Mrs. J. J. Vetter, Mrs. C. F. Strenber, Mrs. Squire Vetter, Mrs. O. M. Vetter, Mrs. Adam Buch, Mrs. W. J. Burke, Mrs. Nettie Farrell, Mrs. Otto Emmert, Mrs. S. P. Balmert, Mrs. Adam Schaner, Mrs. J. J. Orlett, Mrs. A. J. Mader, Misses Anna Goodman and Mary Augustine.

After a pleasant evening spent in sewing and social chat, the guests were invited into the dining-room, where the table was aglow with candles, and the color scheme of green and white was perfectly carried out. Tiny nut baskets and place cards were very attractive at each place, while at the head of the table a place was reserved for the bride and was marked by a bridal bouquet made of candy and a couple bride.

Much merriment was created when Miss Pearl Smith found the wedding ring in the depths of the cake. After the delicious refreshments of cake and ices were served, the table was cleared and a large tray of gifts was presented to the bride.

Among those who enjoyed the evening were the honor guest, Mrs. Harry Christine, the Misses Merle Horn, Vivian Peed, Clara Belle Steadly, Pearl Smith, Goldie Snyder, Jessie May, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Chapman, Mrs. William Reider and daughter Hannah and the hostess.

MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Inability to meet overnight margin calls forced an additional supply of stock into the market at today's opening, causing further recessions in prices. Selling pressure induced largely by liquidation of weakened accounts extended over most of the list, public utilities rails and a number of specialties being the hardest hit. Losses of a point or more took place in Columbia Gas, Public Service of New Jersey, People's Gas, Missouri Pacific preferred, Erie second preferred, Chicago and Northwestern, Baldwin and Studebaker. American Ice dropped two points and Kresge 2 1/2. Elsewhere the declines were largely fractional. There were a few exceptions to the downward trend, Jones Brothers Tea being pushed up 1 1/2 in response to the announcement of an increased dividend. Rock Island, one of the weak features yesterday, rallied feebly and St. Louis Southwest moved up a point. Standard Oil of New Jersey and Gulf States Steel also extended their gains of yesterday.

Completion of the early forced selling which failed to uncover any acute weakness caused extensive short covering in the later dealings. Speculative belief that the reaction had gone far enough was indicated by the ready absorption of all offerings. Buoyancy of the Standard Oil shares and renewed accumulation of Gulf States Steel were contributing causes to the rally. Trading slackened somewhat when the renewal rate for call loans was fixed at 5 per cent the highest since June 28. Standard Oil of New Jersey extended its gain to four points and Gulf States Steel to 3. Other oils, railroads, equipments, motors, coppers and high grade industrials also participated in the advance. Failure of bullish interests to recruit sufficient support to carry prices forward encouraged a renewal of short pressure in today's active stock market, low levels of standard shares being well under those of Monday. While weakened exchange rates reflecting concern over the latest near east developments was a sentimental factor, the decline was largely the result of inside market conditions and trading was mainly of a professional character.

Prices started on the upgrade in the final hour when the selling movement seemed to have spent itself. Sales approximated 1,100,100 shares.

Chicago Grain And Provision CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Wheat went up with a rush today as soon as the market opened. Grave developments at the Dardanelles were reported and dispatches were at hand saying Great Britain's demand for grain from the United States would be very large. Besides Liverpool quotations were up and prices at Winnipeg showed a big jump. Initial prices which ranged from one cent to 2 cents higher with December 1.07 1/4 to 1.08 1/4 and May 1.11 1/4 to 1.12 1/4 were followed by moderate further gains and then something of a reaction.

The close was unsettled 1 1/2 to 2 1/4 net higher with Dec. 1.08 to 1.08 1/4 and May 1.12 to 1.12 1/4. Corn and oats rose with wheat. After opening 1/4 to 1/2 higher Dec. 50 1/2 to 50 3/4, the corn market scored an additional upturn. Oats started 1/4 to 1/2 higher. Dec. 37 1/2 to 37 3/4 and later hardened a little more.

JACKSON MAN IS KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Talmage Farrar, 20, well known young man of Jackson, died about 10:30 o'clock last night at his home as the result of a fractured skull sustained about 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening in a serious automobile accident near Oak Hill, in which three other men of Jackson were injured. Others injured were Sam Eismaugle, and Day Clare who were in the former's Ford coupe with Farrar, and James Ash who was driving a truck belonging to Tony Pusateri of Jackson, the truck colliding head-on with the coupe. Farrar, Eismaugle, and Clare were enroute to Oak Hill to spend the evening. Pusateri and James Ash his truck driver had been to Oak Hill with two loads of fruit and were returning towards Jackson. Farrar was in a big truck and was ahead of the light Ford truck driven by Ash. About two miles from Oak Hill, the coupe passed the big truck and the driver then turned the car back into the middle of the road, falling to see the second truck coming. The driver of the coupe and the driver of the truck both of them failed to see the approach of the heavy truck on account of heavy dust sent up by the big truck. The coupe and Ford truck met head-on with a loud crash, as the coupe was traveling at a good rate of speed, the driver believing the road was clear after passing the big truck. The coupe turned over several times, and the three passengers were not able to jump.

Farrar sustained a fractured skull and was crushed through the chest and abdomen. Eismaugle suffered scalp wounds and bruises and cuts about the face. Clare escaped with minor bruises and severe shock while Ash also escaped with bruises and a severe shaking up.

It was seen that Farrar was dangerously injured and Dr. Seiderer of Oak Hill was called. He ordered the three men removed to their homes in Jackson. Kinsolson's ambulance of Oak Hill being used.

Other physicians at Oak Hill attended Farrar but his injuries were so serious that he died about three hours after the accident, the skull fracture causing death.

Farrar was employed at the Chas. L. Wood undertaking establishment in Jackson. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Farrar. All his life had been in Jackson and community where he was widely known. He is survived by his parents and a sister Mrs. Margaret Bruce and a brother Frank Farrar of Jackson.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home with burial in the Jackson cemetery.

Wage Drive

Against Speeders

Roy "Smoke" Davis, of New Boston, ordered in Mayor William Newberry's court at New Boston by Traffic Officer Frank White, who claimed Davis was driving an automobile on Harrisonville avenue at a speed of 62 miles an hour, appeared before Mayor Newberry Friday morning and entered a plea of not guilty. According to Davis he was in the machine but was not driving the car. He claims a friend of his from Ashland, was at the wheel. He was released on $100 bond and will have a trial in a few days when he expects to have witnesses in court to prove his claims.

Speeders and reckless drivers are to be given strict attention by New Boston officers who claim motorists use the paved streets of the village for regular speedways.

Artie Howard who was arrested Wednesday night on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated was fined $21.00 by Mayor Newberry last night. "Every traffic law violator caught by the village officers, is to be given a fine," says Mayor Newberry, who claims fair warnings are going unheeded.

Reds And Boston

Split Double Bill

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—By overcoming a five run lead and defeating the Detroit Tigers yesterday 9 to 8, while the Browns were winning from Washington 7 to 6, the Yankees today maintained their lead of three and one-half games over the St. Louis club. It was the Browns' first victory in their last four games.

The Yankees have seven more games to play, while the Browns have six on their schedule. Thus if the Yankees win four of their contests and the Browns win all of their games, the New York club will win the pennant by one full game.

The Giants lost ground in their penultimate fight when they dropped a second game to the Pittsburgh Pirates 6 to 1 and are now only 3 1/2 games to the good. To make the pennant a mathematical certainty, the Giants must win seven of their remaining eleven games. However, the Pirates, with eight games on their schedule, to nose out the leaders, must finish the season without a defeat, while the Giants win only five of their games.

The Cubs and Phillies and Cincinnati and the Boston Nationals split double headers and Brooklyn won from St. Louis in other National league contests. In the American league, the Athletics defeated Chicago 6 to 1 and Boston took a sweet set from Cleveland 15 to 5, in the other games.

The Yankees open their final series at Cleveland today while the Browns from the Athletics, Washington at Chicago and Boston at Detroit are other games in the American league today.

Double headers will be played between Cincinnati and Boston and Chicago and Philadelphia, while the Pirates continue their series with the Giants at the polo grounds and St. Louis meets Brooklyn at Ebbets Field in National league contests today.

NATIONAL REDS SPLIT EVEN

BOSTON, Sept. 22.—Cincinnati took the first game of a double header from Boston 4 to 2, largely due to Ford's error behind Cooney's fine pitching in the seventh when the visitors collected four runs. Watson's pitching was the deciding factor in the 5 to 2 Boston victory in the second game.

WHIP GIANTS
NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Pittsburgh yesterday reduced New York's lead in National League race to three and one-half games, defeating the world's champion Giants in the second game of the series 6 to 1. Hamilton held New York as safe today as did Cooper, the other left hander yesterday. In six of the nine innings Hamilton reined the side in order.

Pittsburgh hit Nelt, its former jinx, hard, while New York's fielding was also listless and spiritless. Bigbee hit his second home run successive days into the right field stand. Score:

ST. CLEAN SWEEP
DETROIT, MICH., Sept. 22.—The New York Yankees yesterday showed a spirit that would not admit defeat and made a clean sweep of the series with Detroit, taking the final game 9 to 8, although menaced at every turn by the Tigers, who are battling to retain third place in the American League. The work of Ruth and Meusel with the bat was responsible for New York's winning, each hitting a home run. Ruth's came with one runner on base and was made off Oldham. The result of the game might have been altered save for an injury to Daus in the fourth inning. Daus started for Detroit and had things well in hand until he sprained an ankle in sliding into third base. The Tigers had a comfortable lead up to that time. Daus faced the first three batters to face him. Score:

SISLER AWARDED SERVICE TROPHY

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—George H. Sisler of the St. Louis Browns, generally rated as the greatest first baseman in the major leagues, today was awarded the American League trophy by the club owners as a reward to the player who proved of greatest service to his team during the 1922 championship season.

Sisler's name will be the first inscribed on the $100,000 baseball monument to be erected by the government as a memorial to the national sport and a Hall of Fame for perpetuating the memory of its greatest players.

The St. Louis star, regarded as the logical successor to Ty Cobb as the game's greatest all-around player, has maintained a batting average of .300 or better since the start of the season, is a remarkable fielder and perhaps the fastest player in the major leagues.

He is a left handed hitter and also throws with his left hand.

Sisler was awarded the title of best player for 1922 by a wide margin, according to the official announcement made by I. B. Sanborn, chairman of the American League trophy committee. His nearest rival in the contest was Ed Rempel, whose pitching was recognized as the chief factor in lifting the Athletics out of eighth place. The St. Louis first baseman lacked only five points of receiving the highest possible vote, Rempel's total was 31 points.

It was a close third with 26 points. Joe Bush received the highest total, 70, of any of the New York team, with 19 points which ranked him fourth, just ahead of Eddy Collins, of Chicago. Besides Bush, the Yankees, who figured in the balloting, were Pipp, Schlang, Meusel and Scott.

The contest was decided by a committee of eight baseball writers, one in each city of the circuit, each of whom selected eight "best players" one from each team and ranked them according to their individual preferences on ballots so arranged that first place counted eight points, and eighth place one point.

P. H. S. Gets New Material

Just what the lineup will be when the P. H. S. eleven takes the field Saturday, September 30, in its first game of the season, is hard to say, for several second team candidates are showing up like a house afire and men who are on the first team will have to extend themselves if they intend to hold their jobs.

Will Moore and Barbour Counts are two players who are showing up well in scrimmages against the second team. Moore was out last year and played on the line in the second team but illness prevented him from getting into action. Counts was regular on the New Boston eleven last year and is a better man. He entered P. H. S. Thursday and was out to practice yesterday afternoon.

RECKLESS DRIVING

RECKLESS driving of automobiles has caused the authorities of several states to adopt more drastic measures. One of these is to prefer in the first instance homicide charges whenever there are fatalities, thus placing the burden of proof on the accused. This course is being pursued when occupants of cars are killed as well as when cars kill pedestrians.

There is no question that reckless driving in many cases is criminal whether intentionally or not. Drivers "take chances," and know they take them when there is no valid reason for their doing so. "Such risk cannot be shared by occupants of cars," recently declared a New York judge, "any more than by pedestrians." The driver has the same responsibility as the engineer running a locomotive, and must prove extenuating circumstances.

Just what effect such drastic measures will have is problematical. They may deter some drivers from taking undue risks, but may have no effect on others, especially those whose brains are addled by "hooch." It is a statistical fact that recklessness resulting in fatalities is generally due to partial intoxication.

At a meeting of the Clay Township trustees last night at New Boston the $1,000 bond of Dr. T. H. McCann was accepted. Dr. McCann recently entered upon his duties as township physician.

Reports were made on considerable road work that has been under way in the township. Improvements have been completed on the Benner road.

Paris Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Thoughts while strolling around Paris: One spot in Paris where you don't have to tip. A public drinking fountain, Hotel Crillon, where President Wilson had his headquarters. The ash cart horses are plumed like those in the circus. And harnessed tandem style. Groups of tired Americans dragged around by hoarse guides. All the walking sticks have huge white knobs. Women's skirts reach below the ankles. And here's where Louis XVI lost his head. A public square means another head in the basket.

There's the card shark who had to leave our boat. He looks more like a tired book-keeper. Harold McCormick and his bride. That couple can shove a war off the first page. The Frenchman invariably turns to stare at a blonde. Victor Hugo's statue. Crowds awaiting at the Gare du Nord to see the King of Spain. Jean Beluili, the American burlesque actor. There's a sign: "Bar For Lobsters." The figures on the opera glimmering gold under the sun. I haven't seen a Chinese laundry in Paris.

Also I haven't heard a Frenchman called by the name of Gaston. Windows flashing their rippling fire of jewels. Orange vendors parading the curbs. Women draped in Castilian shawls. The afternoon parade to tea and patisserie.

Each home window has its gay awning. Wonder where I could get a plate of beans. Mackerel-eyed old men sitting on the stoops of their dingy shops. Deaf to the Parisian rustle of silk. I wonder what might have happened to this town if the Germans had captured it.

Clean-cut young Frenchmen with faces heavy with despondency. Rows of stalls with cheap French prints. Most of them vulgar. All the hotel employes try to sell filthy picture cards. The hour of dusk. Now for a sidewalk table to watch the world go by.

I have a letter today from a man in Southern France who desires to rent me his villa for the fall season for $20,000. He tells of the bathtub cut from a solid block of marble, with sterling silver faucets. If I will send him 200 francs as a guarantee of my good faith, he invites me to be his guest for a week. This is a new version of the old lost fortune in Spain. The hotel clerk tells me that many tourists fall for the swindle.

Baccarat is comparable to poker in America as the favorite gambling game of France. The wealthy Frenchman goes to Deauville for the week-end to indulge his sporting proclivities. And Deauville, they say, is becoming another Monte Carlo since the passing of the Prince of Monaco. Several New York theatrical managers are reported to have dropped huge sums there during the past week.

Last night I visited the Dead Rat in the Montmartre. It became notorious many years ago as a rendezvous for a fast and loose crowd of Americans. Harry Thaw was said to have done some wild spending there. It is now a place chiefly for the slumming tourist. Very few Parisians go there. An Indian Prince who used to serve curries at Delmonico's is one of the attractions of the place.

Paris is determined to get every ounce of blood out of the visitor. In the women's wash rooms in cafes a charge of 50 centimes is made for those who promp before a looking glass.

Bill's Way

When Billy Thackston comes to town it is a pleasant sight To see how skillfully he works, a-shakin' left and right. And also round the other way he shakes hands just for fun. With every friend that's done him right or he's a favor done. And 'twixt the two, them that he likes and them that like old Bill, He's never got through shaking hands and likely never will.

For when he's shook clear through the list and looks as if he's done, Up pops somebody else he's helped and then he's just begun.

PAGEANT NEWS

One of the few remaining meetings of the Pageant Executive Committee was held this afternoon when much detail work was completed. Reports from the chairman of the numerous committees were most encouraging, and indications are that with good weather conditions the attendance at all three days of the great outdoor spectacle will be most satisfactory.

Many seats have been sold and reserved and many more will be before the opening day. It should be remembered that the box office at the Chamber of Commerce is open every day and evening and will continue to be open until Tuesday noon next, when tickets will be sold at the Park grounds. A few boxes remain, and contemplated purchasers would do well to make their purchases today or tomorrow.

New Boston, Sciotoville, Wheelersburg, Lucasville, Buena Vista, Powellsville, and in fact all parts of the county will be well represented at the

Why He Changed His Mind

Young Willie's mother wished him to be a preacher, and, as is sometimes the habit of good women, kept telling him so. But Willie had other leanings and never hesitated to say so. One Sunday afternoon, however, after an unusually long morning service, he announced, "I believe, after all, I'll be a preacher."

His delighted mother embraced him and then asked, "What made you change your mind so suddenly?"

"Oh," he replied, "I've decided I'd rather stand in the pulpit and shout than sit in the congregation and listen."

Ambition

You will never get anywhere unless you have higher ideals than this," preached the woman to whose door the tramp had applied for assistance. "Are you really content to spend your life walking around the country begging?"

"No, lady," answered Tim. "Many's the time I've wished I had an auto."

The Ruling Passion

I've just had some good news," said Bearstean, upon meeting his friend, Mr. Abrahams. "My son Solly has got a commission in the Army."

"Go on," replied Abrahams, rubbing his hands; "how much?"

It Puzzled Him

"She has refused my suit!" the hero on the stage exclaimed dramatically.

"Mother," loudly whispered a little boy in the audience, "what does he want her to wear his clothes for?"

IF YOU ARE WELL BRED

YOU are careful to see that your dining table is always well appointed. The silver should always be carefully polished, the glassware shining and the linen spotless.

It is much easier to give a successful dinner or luncheon, if one is sure that all the appointments are attended to, so that one may devote one's attention entirely to the guests and their pleasure.

The Martin

It begins to look like short skirts, like high prices, are only going to come down in rare and unimportant instances. A spoken performance of "East Lynne" and a recital of alternate laughter and tears. "It opens the regular dramatic season at Melodrama hall on next Monday night by one of the best companies afoot."

Practically all of Nauvoo's population turned out Thursday evening to aid in the search for Sherman, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter. Just about the time they were about ready to give up the search, the lad walked from the home and wanted to know what so many people were doing about and when informed he explained that he had been asleep in the house for several hours.
